

East/West Calligraphy Workshop Venice, Italy

October 31- November 7, 2021

Monica Dengo, Master Western Calligrapher

Kazuaki Tanahashi, Master East Asian Calligrapher

Monica & Kaz discuss the schedule

It seems only fitting to hold a workshop to experience a fusion of these two calligraphic traditions in the city where Marco Polo ventured forth to explore the east. Monica and Kaz come together again to create this life-altering inspirational biennial workshop. Practitioners of either or both traditions are welcome, but no previous experience in those traditions are necessary to attend. All materials are included in the price of the workshop. Instruction will be given in English.

Studio space at Palazzo Minotto

The workshop will take place at Palazzo Minotto in the Gaffaro section of Dorsoduro and is limited to 14 participants.

To sign up please contact Christine at zenbrush@yahoo.com to be placed on the list. Cost of the workshop is estimated to be 990 Euros, but may be adjusted in June 2021 when the deposit is due because of potential price increases by that time. Also, adjustments may need to be made for the conversion into USD. To ensure accurate communication it would be helpful to make your email communication in English.

Our host, Gabriella, serving lunch which is optional

November is the start of low season in Venice, when the weather can still be very good and accommodations are more affordable. Christine has general information on Venice, nearby accommodations, vaporetto passes, etc. Most of it will be posted on her website zenbrush.net
